

YEMD Section – Officers Description

Position	Section Co-Chair
Eligibility Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ EUSEM full member; ✓ To be 35 years old or younger at the time of the application and/or currently registered in a national Emergency Medicine training programme; ✓ Evidence of involvement in YEMD at local, national or international level is recommended but not mandatory; ✓ Curriculum Vitae with picture (max 2 pages); ✓ Motivation Letter (max 500 words);
Duration of the position	2 years
Job Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Organize YEMD Section Officers meetings (e.g. assess availabilities, gather agenda items, minutes recording); - Administer and monitor YEMD Section Social Media channels (i.e. Twitter, Facebook Page, Instagram); - Organise the content of the YEMD Section newsletter; - Keep the SharePoint documents up to date; - Facilitate communication with YEMD collaborators to promote engagement in section activities; - Monitor YEMD page on EUSEM website and ensure it is updated regularly; - Maintain or establish contact with the national young EM physician organisations and/or groups - Represent the YEMD during the EUSEM Board of Directors meetings when the Section Chair is unable to do attend; - Support the Section Chair in the coordination and leadership of the YEMD Section Officers; - Help the Section Chair to organise the YEMD Board elections;
Privileges	Free congress entrance in the following year if task completed successfully as agreed by the YEMD board