1. Review of „historical background“ of the Section: established in 2008 within München 2008 EuSEM Congress, next meetings in Valencia (2009), Stockholm (2010), Kos (2011) and Antalya (2012) – in Antalya 17 people interested in work, the „core“ of today´s section members
2. Number of members up to Marseille´s meeting: 16
3. European Board Examination in EM: Jana Seblova participated – prehospital testing questions in MCQ´s
4. Scientific presentations in EuSEM/MEMC congresses: Valencia, Stockholm, Kos – 1 track in the scientific programme, Antalya, Marseille: 2 tracks (clinical practice and state-of-the art) + oral papers; increasing number of audience
5. Marseille 2013: Falck Foundation award for best prehospital abstract –“Accuracy of diagnosing sepsis and early antibiotic treatment in the prehospital setting”.
6. Medical Dispatching Conference 2013 – „Seeking for the golden standard“: organisers - prof. Castrén – Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm 14 – 15 May 2013. The participants discussed to continue in conferences dedicated to medical dispatch.
7. Research: it seems possible to co-operate with other EuSEM Sections. Themes should include not only clinical practice but also organisational aspects, disaster medicine, ethics etc. Based on discussion in Antalya J. P. Tourtier et al. prepared a study called: „Research in prehospital emergency medicine: comparison by geographic origin of publications” – presented in Marseille and prepared for publication in EJEM.
