

Dear EUSEM member,

It is time to nominate a new Vice-President of the European Society for Emergency Medicine. The successful candidates will take office from the end of the Annual General Assembly at the Congress in Copenhagen in October. The Vice-president will serve for a period of 3 years.

The by-laws of EUSEM state that candidates must:

- be a full Individual Members in good standing of the INPO, at the time of standing for election and throughout the whole term of office.
- have experience in the affairs of the INPO.
- have been a council member for a period of at least two years before nomination.
- have responded to the circular calling for nomination of the Vice President not less than sixty days before the next Annual General Assembly
- be able to communicate in the official language of the INPO.

The by-laws also state that a maximum of two Directors can come from the same country where they have their professional activity at any one time. The call is therefore open to all member countries.

Only Full Members (not Associate or Affiliate Members) of the Society are eligible to nominate and vote in the election of a Director.

If you would like to nominate someone for the position of Vice-president, please complete the form that you can find at this link:

A detailed job description is also downloadable at the same link.

You will need to find a full member of EUSEM to second your nomination and to obtain the consent and signature from the proposed candidate.

The candidate will also be required to submit the form with a short statement (not more than 200 words) which outlines their relevant experience for the position, and which includes their aspirations for the future development of the Society.

Nominations will be verified for eligibility. The statements of appropriately nominated candidates will then be circulated to all members eligible to vote as part of the voting process.

Please complete the nomination form in capital letters and return it by email with the candidate's statement to davik@eusem.org by 31 May 2024 at the latest.

Best regards,

Tatjana Rajkovic
Honorary Secretary
